Dear Fellow Missionaries, Pastors, Family & Friends:

I trust the Lord has blessed you this past month as much as He has blessed me. Although over half of our Japanese people have either gone on vacation here in the states or have gone back to Japan, services continue as usual. This prayer letter will be sent to about 1000 pastors, missionaries, family and friends. That's a lot of people and I know that many are praying for my ministries. I am forever thankful for your prayers.

My first book, "No More Tears" written to encourage those who have lost a spouse is in its second edition. My second book, Bible Verses on Comfort with Comments by Bill Hathaway" is now available. The top picture shows them on display at the Ben Franklin Store in Mt. Vernon, Missouri (top picture). These books can be ordered by going to my web site at www.billhathawayministries.org. The "Bible Verses" book contains all Bible verses I can think of dealing with comfort, encouragement and assurance that the Lord is with you no matter what kind of valley a person may be experiencing. You can also order these books directly from me.

Yes, I still play my trumpet during church services. I keep thinking that I'm getting too old to play the trumpet, but I guess as long as the Lord gives me the lip, I will continue to use it for the Lord. The 3rd picture is of Hiroshi Inaba, a BBC student from Japan. He went with me to Silver Dollar City for a day of enjoyment. The 4th picture shows me preaching at a local nursing home.

In addition to my first love, the Japanese ministry, I keep busy in 3 other ministries: the Precious Memories Support Ministry, the SOS Soulwinning Ministry and my KWFC Radio Ministry. The SOS Soulwinning Ministry has gone world-wide. In both Africa and India, we hear of thousands being saved. At 78, some think I should retire and take it easy, but I have absolutely no plans to retire. I do covet your prayers and should you be led to support me monthly that would be greatly appreciated.

Yours, Serving Our Saviour, together,
 Bill Hathaway
