 INTERNATIONAL RADIO MINISTRY
 FEB. 2011

Dear Friends:

Well, those are strange pictures to place on a missionary's prayer letter. We had the most snow ever in Springfield; in fact it was a snow blizzard. Schools, churches, stores and just about everything else came to a halt. However, there are always the next sermons for which to prepare and the next meetings to preach and to pray for. (Oh, the picture is of my apartment, 2nd from the far corner, and the snow covered small signs I made outside my door.)

Despite the snow, our Japanese ministry went on uninterrupted. Our Japanese students all returned from the Christmas/New Year's vacation safely. With the new year, our people have a new vision to reach more Japanese people for the Lord. There are more Japanese people in this area than originally thought. This Saturday we will be having a Japanese children's meeting. It surprises me when I see how many come. We hear from our churches in Japan about how the Lord is blessing them with souls being saved. So our Japanese ministry continues both here and in Japan.

The SOS Soulwinning ministry continues reaching souls around the world. The SOS Soulwinning Card is now in several languages. We hear of souls being saved and Christians getting involved in soulwinning in many countries. The Precious Memories Support Ministry continues to be a blessing to many who have lost a spouse or loved one. My book, "No More Tears" is available online as well as directly from me. My companion book "Bible Verses on Comfort With Comments by Bill Hathaway" is also available. Then there's my world-wide radio ministry. You can hear my messages in both Japanese and English on my website at www.soshelp123.com or www.billhathawayministries.org. These various ministries keep me busy as ever. Your financial support is both needed and appreciated.
