Dear Fellow Pastors, Missionaries & Friends:

It seems God's blessings never stop. "There Shall Be Showers of Blessings" is so true. This past month Hiroshi Inaba, a BBC student from Japan surrendered to preach. He has changed his major to the pastor's course. Not only our Japanese people are happy about this great victory, but Pastor Gary Longstaff and the entire congregation of the Grandview Baptist Church is thrilled over this. I am busier than ever now that we've been able to add more services. The people of Grandview are thrilled with having a Japanese church as part of their ministry.

The pictures show a Saturday special children's meeting. We are finding that there are a lot more Japanese people here in the Springfield area than we originally thought. When we have something special such as the children's meeting or ladies' Bible Study on Thursdays, there are always new faces I have not seen before. Pray with us that we can reach these people for Christ.

The Precious Memories Support Ministry is also doing well. I hear of people all over the United States as well as overseas who tell me how much my book "No More Tears" has meant to them and given them comfort. Some churches have ordered 50 or more books. My companion book, "Bible Verses on Comfort With Comments by Bill Hathaway" is also available.

The earthquake/tsunami/nuclear situation in Japan is still a major problem. Thousands of lives have been affected. News from our churches report that not only food, clothes, water and other necessities have been distributed, but tracts have been distributed and souls have been saved. There is great appreciation for what America has done to help, but the lasting result will be the souls that are saved. I am praying for revival to hit Japan.

The SOS soulwinning ministry keeps growing, especially in foreign countries such as India and Africa. I believe the average American church has grown lax in the desire to win souls. The SOS plan is not a "1, 2, 3, say this prayer, you're saved" system. When I use this system, I stress the need of true repentance, confession of sins and receiving Jesus as Lord and Savior. Check it out at www.soshelp.com.

I am in need of support. Please consider adding me to your missionary list. Thank you.

In Christ,

Bill
