(Making my recent world-wide radio preaching message)

Dear Fellow Missionaries, Pastors & Friends:

I could hardly wait for another month to row by so I could send you another Prayer Letter. Know why? Well, my son Ike has compiled several hours of video I took on my trip to Japan into a 20 minute presentation. Then, my web master, Chris Jaquess of Two Tall Design put it on my web site. If I do say so myself, it is fantastic. Already some have seen it and have asked if they can use it in their churches. Of course, I said "yes." That goes for you too. Please use it in any way you can. It will help promote the Great Commission. There are two ways to view it. Go to my web page at www.billhathawayministries.org and press on "Blog;" or, just click on this link:

<http://billhathawayministries.org/blog/video-of-my-trip-to-japan-october-2010/>.

I wouldn't mind hearing from you after you view this video. I want to be able to tell my son Ike, and my web master Chris how much the video was appreciated.

I continue to hear from our churches in Japan of how they are starting other churches and the work continues on. I have no idea how many churches have been started by the churches we started, but there are many. Here our Japanese mission work continues to flourish. In fact, I am praying and planning on expanding the ministry even more. I have more than I can shake a stick at now, but a new need has presented itself. I have been asked to have an English Conversation class for Japanese, but I am praying about starting one for all foreigners; Chinese, Korean, Vietnamese, even those from the countries in South America; in fact, anywhere. Of course, my purpose is not really the English, but I will be reaching them for Christ. In other words, the Bible will be the main "text-book." It may take a couple months or so before we get this started, so just pray for this new door of opportunity.

Knowing my financial need Pastor Gary Longstaff has expressed to me his desire to do what he can to influence churches to take me on for monthly support. He is gathering recommendations from my 6 supporting pastors and will be contacting them in an effort get churches to realize the need and to support me. In fact, his church, Grandview B.C. has taken me on in a big way. Before I end this letter, I urge you to listen to me on the world-wide radio (www.joy97.com) and also on my web page at www.soshelp123.com. I sent a new broadcast this past week that is not on my web site. Joy97.com has my broadcast listed under Broadcast schedule.

On Facebook, you can follow my ministries by going to the following: Bill Hathaway, Precious Memories Support Ministry and Japanese and Friends. Also, I recommend the SOS Salvation Of Souls page. By requesting to be my friend, you can also keep up with my ministries. You will find my Facebook very Interesting and informative.

May the Lord richly bless you as you labor for the Salvation Of Souls,

Bill
