Dear Fellow Missionaries, Pastors & Friends:

Last month I had big computer problems and was not able to send out my regular prayer letters. I still have that problem since two PC service places could not fix the problem. However, I will try to send this as a PDF file and maybe you can receive it.

Without the Japanese programs that I did have before having my computer updated to MS Office 365, it takes more time to put the Japanese into my sermon notes.

I need your prayers regarding the final results of a test I had done to see if I have cancer. I should hear in one or two weeks. Regardless of the outcome, I am in the hands of the Lord and I will continue to carry on the command the Lord gave me.

Actually, I don't feel any different and I haven't had to slow down. That scripture above is so true. However, I have to be honest and say that sometimes it is frustrating. I thought I would take this funny picture of me trying to look frustrated. Really I never get frustrated on the outside.

We are enjoying the new meeting room the church gave us for our Japanese ministry. We thank the Lord for the six churches that support us. They have continued supporting us for many years. It is not just the financial support that we appreciate, but also their prayers. If ever we need prayer, it is now. If you do not support us financially, we ask for your prayers.

Yours, Serving Our Saviour, together,
